

Honors Minor in Leadership

The Honors Minor in Leadership consists of five Honors courses (15 credit hours), providing high-potential IUPUI undergraduates admitted to the new IUPUI Honors College or other degree programs exposure to current theory and practice designed to prepare students for future leadership roles and/or advanced degrees. Students admitted to the Honors Minor in Leadership must take a sequence of five courses exploring topics covering a wide range of leadership principles including: (1) Foundations of Leadership; (2) Ethical, Social, and Political Components to Leadership; (3) Diversity, Global, and Community Leadership; (4) Theoretical and Practical Aspects of Leadership; and (5) Honors RISE Experience in Leadership (Research, International, Service, or Experiential Learning). At least two Honors courses (6.0 credit hours) must be taken outside of the student's primary discipline. Each of the Interdisciplinary Leadership Principles in the Honors Minor in Leadership directly relates to the IUPUI Principles of Undergraduate Learning¹:
